Hostility

Copia

A war i upon us
Aggression overload
The spiteful deception
Makes our venom flow

Severed senses let us know
We're losing poisoning the soul
It's a burden we must bear
And we don't care

But can we open up and see
All this rage has caused insanity
If this is all we've ever healing
Let it all overflow

A hostile surrounding
Laden with jealousy and hate
Fuelling the anger
Behind our empty cries we
Break down
And now we waver
No trust
I know that from now on

All hope is gone

When this is over
And we've make changes
We'll start a new life
When this is over
