

Endless Cycle

Lou Reed

The bias of the father runs on through the son
And leaves him bothered and bewildered
The drugs in his veins only cause him to spit
At the face staring back in the mirrorHow can he tell a good act from the bad
He can't even remember his name
How can he do what needs to be done
When he's a follower not a leaderThe sickness of the mother runs on through the girl
Leaving her small and helpless
Liquor files through her brain with the force of a gun
Leaving her running in circlesHow can she tell a good act from the bad
When she's flat on her back in her room
How can she do what needs to be done
When she's a coward and a bleederThe man if he marries will batter his child
And have endless excuses
The woman sadly will do much the same
Thinking that it's right and it's properBetter than their mommy or their daddy did
Better than the childhood they suffered
The truth is they're happier when they're in pain
In fact, that's why they got married
