

I'll Know You

Sons of Sylvia

It could be when I'm dreaming
It could be on the streets of L.A.
It could be on a Monday morning
On a daylight train It could happen when I'm lonely
Looking out on the rain that's falling down
It could be in a crowd, it could be on a night
When nobody's around I feel the sweet surrender of my heart
Is leading me to where you are right now I'll know when I see you
And I'll know before I touch your skin
I'll see it in your eyes
My whole life will be there And I'll find you at the right time
And I'll stay awake 'cause I don't wanna miss it
You might not even stop and see me standing there
But I'll know you You're my faith when it's faded
You're the touch that I want to taste
You're the reason I walk this city
And drive myself insane I'm holding out for your sweet kiss
I'm holding on to the very thought of you
Laying here in the dark wherever you are
I wanna be there now I'll find a way to push on through to the end of the day
But when you finally come around I'll know when I see you
And I'll know before I touch your skin
I'll see it in your eyes
My whole life will be there And I'll find you at the right time
And I'll stay awake 'cause I don't wanna miss it
You might not even stop and see me standing there
But I'll know you Oh, I'm barely hanging on
I keep wondering how long
Until the moment I'll get to hold you close to me I'm gonna find you baby, always
And I don't care how long it takes
I'll wait for you, I'll wait for you, I'll wait I'll know when I see you
And I'll know before I touch your skin
I'll see it in your eyes
My whole life will be there
I'll see it in your eyes And I'll find you at the right time
And I'll stay awake 'cause I don't wanna miss it
You might not even stop and see me standing there
But I'll know you, oh Oh, I'll know you
Oh, I'm barely hanging on, I'll know you

I'll know you, I'll know you, ooh
