All I Know

Screaming Trees

Bite the thorn that pierce the skin
Come back down to earth again
The cold is creeping deep inside
You disconnect the telephone lineGotta get away
Gotta get away
Get away
Gotta get away
'fore the lord gonna make me stayAll that I know
Shoulda been Coulda been
MineI killed the last way out of this
Persuaded by a deceitful kissThat said you better stay
Said you better stay
Better stay
Said you better stay
'fore it's all gone
Gone awayAll that I know...(repeat)Bite the thorn that pierce the skin
Come back down to earth again
The cold is creeping deep inside
You disconnect the telephone lineGotta get away....
'fore I lose my mind
Said you better stay...
'fore it's all gone
Gone awayAll that I know...(repeat)
