OurAfter

I keep falling through the silence
'Cause the cracks are just too deep
    Getting all you had to offer
    There's nothing I can keep
    You can't turn to me for solace
    'Cause i live to be a creep
    So stop chasing me for answers
    You're just running in your sleep

There's no time to put this all together
There's no time to search for all the answers
    You've got me running
    From the things that make me feel
I'll keep on evading from the fear that makes me real
    No matter what follows
    I have nothing left to lose
    So I'll keep on waiting
    I'll just leave it up to you

You keep wanting my attention
    While I'm staring at the wall
    Afraid to walk on this thin ice and too afraid to fall
    It's now or never
It's come back to never once again
    It's now or never
It's come back to never once again

There's no time to put this all together
There's no time to search for all the answers
    You've got me running
    From the things that make me feel
I'll keep on evading from the fear that makes me real
    No matter what follows
    So i'll keep on waiting
    I'll just leave it up to you

    You've got me running
    From the things that make me feel

I'll keep on evading from the fear that makes me real
No matter what follows
So i'll keep on waiting
I'll just leave it up to you
I'll just leave it up to you
