

Clocked In

Black Flag

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

i'm tied to a clock
i can't get loose
i did this to myself
put my brain in a noose[chorus] buzzer sounds, gotta move feet move, legs move, hands move, brain moves.... real slowi gotta' be on time
just to collect my reward
i gotta stand in line
makes me feel so fucking bored'boss barks orders at me but i can't yell back
'cause whenever i try....
get that son of a bitch off my back[bridge]
i have this problem every morning,
i gotta' face the clock;
punch in, punch out, it makes me so pissed off
one of these days i'm gonna smash it off the wall!
go home!
