

Praise Him Through the Night

Fred Hammond

The day has passed and darkness comes to settle in, no no
Confusion rolls in like a fog and I can't see my way
Now doubt believes it can make my faith seem paper thin, no no
The peace and joy that I have known has been replaced This time with tears and sadness
The midnight for the day
Sorrow instead gladness
But with all that is in me I'll still say That I will praise Him through the night
And I will worship in the fight
Praise Him forever because I know that He's worthy
Praise Him over the adversary we'll overcome The wicked one whose fury runs with anger deep, oh, oh, oh
Destruction is his only goal against our side
With hatred strong, he demands we declare defeat, no, no
He says he's won but we all know that he's a lie When fear moves our foundation
Know God has not forsaken
He'll bring a brighter day
So let me hear the people of God say That I will praise Him through the night
And I will worship in the fight
Praise Him forever because I know that He's worthy
Praise Him over the adversary we'll overcome Battle gets too much for me to take we're gonna praise Him
When I can't see through the wind and rain
We're still gonna praise Him yes we will
In my darkest hour we're gonna praise Him still When it's weary, dark and lifeless we're gonna praise Him
When hope seems like it's almost gone
We're still gonna praise Him yes we will
In my darkest hour we're gonna praise Him still That I will praise Him through the night
And I will worship in the fight
Praise Him forever for I know that He's worthy
Praise Him over the adversary we'll overcome We'll overcome when we praise Him
We'll overcome yes we will
We'll overcome keep on praising
We'll overcome Praise Him forever for I know that He's worthy
Praise Him over the adversary we will overcome
