

Runaway Love (remix)

Justin Bieber

Visual, visual JB

Yo 'Ye whattup

Raekwon

[Raekwon] You got stacks like the international house of pancakes

All alone ready to phone me and your hand shakes

Palms are sweatin', Dawn's regretin'

Never to walk the miles for love, I sit at starters deck

It just happened, I was floatin' you seen it Cathy?

Blinked at me then I threw on my thinking cap

Take her, and then we can slide to Jamaica

Shopping for a year or two, stop in Diega

It's obvious: I wanta see who your mommy is

We just friends so she can't Clyde Bonnie us

Fly walls down in the fly halls

Come to the master suite, leave every piece in the master hall

All of my money tied in a know stand over there

That's why I make it happen on blocks

Brazil cut sweater, Audi, leather playing the field tryna outslug Beretta

[Justin Bieber] You see my baby over hit the road,

Where she's going i swear nobody knows

I need to find her before another man does

I wouldn't want him to steal my love

I'm just tryin to be cool, cool, cool (tryn'a be cool)

What would you expect me to do (ohh, yea

I'm just tryin to find, find, find

That sweet love of mine

I'm runnin outta time

Where is my runaway love

Searching low and high

Know that I'm not givin' up.

I give it all up for her

I'll never be enough

I wont stop until I find

My runaway love

[Kanye West] Last name West and my teeth Diamonds

She said yo, wish ya, I could place your crazy rhyming

Listen to Wu Tang

Trying suits on, "a coojoo mons to great poon pawn" (?)

Stuntin' in our high top louie's
Shorts is the coogies
Open up the door when you take her to the movies
When you meet the parents you tell De Niro
Her boyfriend is zero she needs to cut the weirdo
Next show they gotta up the zeroes
Nobody rocking like they're 60 years old
The hard johns and the walleys something that caught me
I'm telling you what Wu-Tang taught me
The young youth rocking the gold tooth
Pull up in a drop top old school bumping the cash rules
No question we the reason why the summers blazin
They say, you lookin' good fly, color Asian

Well I give it to ya, no trivia
she used to roll with my g-unit like Olivia
'Til she caught me getting numbers, not her's
Guess that's the day she became a runaway lover
[Justin Bieber]I'm runnin' outta time
Where is my runway love
Searching low and high
Know that I'm not givin' up.
I give it all up for her
I'll never be enough
I wont stop until I find
My runaway love
Why can't i find, the love of mine,
When you're standing in front of my face
Oh, yeah, You must be mine
How did I let you get away
[Raekwon]Leave it up to the most high, sit in a ghost fly
Chillin' with 2 of my brothers, we both live on deck
Grabbing 'em on set
This is how we roll, independents, she a go, I'm gonna go get
Take that queen, assure to ya
We can live it up every month, baby girl just call me up
Waking up mess dressed in some cold sweats thinking of this *, the video tapes
Even the stress
My mind is a terrible thing to waste
No love lost I know Im going crazy I can't floss
Me and my lady left my homies
It's all baloney just like rocking an old pony
So when I chillin I'm just lost no more feeling
I need my honey in my life get that film it
Take the time Rae Just and Ye shine

My runaway love give me mine come on

[Justin Bieber]I'm runnin' outta time

Where is my runaway love

Searching low and high

Know that I'm not givin' up.

I give it all up for her

I'll never be enough

I wont stop until I find

My runaway love

Runnin' outta time

Where is my runaway love

Searching low and high

Know that I'm not givin' up.

I give it all up for her

I'll never be enough

I wont stop until I find

My runaway love

Yea, ohh, baby
