

How Can You Give Up

'Til Tuesday

No, you don't know
It makes no sense
And there goes
Your confidence You were so understanding
So sure of yourself
But when love became damaged
You ran for help How can you give up on love?
Oh, how can you give up on love so soon?
How can you give up on love this time?
You ought to know love is hard to find Steady
Hold your breath
It isn't
Over yet So, with one small admission, you're paying the price
Did you tell yourself lying was good advice? How can you give up on love?
Oh, how can you give up on love so soon?
How can you give up on love this time?
You ought to know love is hard to find It's not easy to tell
Where security lies
Is it stupid to trust
In the look in her eyes? How can you give up on love?
Oh, how can you give up on love so soon?
How can you give up on love this time?
You ought to know love is hard to find How can you give up on love?
Oh, how can you give up on love so soon?
How can you give up on love this time?
You ought to know that love is hard to find How can you give up?
Oh, how can you give up?
How can you give up?
You ought to know that love is hard to find
