Conversation's Over

Sugababes

Conversation uh huh
Conversation uh huh huh
Conversation uh huh
Yeah, yeahDid it start with an obsession?
Was the writing on the wall?
I can see through your deception
Through it all, I see clearly nowFor too long you've had it your way
For too long I've tiptoed round
Finally we're face to face, boy
No drama now, I'll stand my groundNow the conversation's over
And there's nothing more to say
I've had my time with you
So hear me now I won't stay
It's my turn to walk awayNo point in talking round in circles
Or trying to read between the lines
I saw you dancing with the devil
I'm not blind, don't sympathize'Cos for too long you've played your own game
For too long I've stood and cried
It's time I changed the combination
I'll be fine, won't change my mindNow the conversation's over
And there's nothing more to say
I've had my time with you
So hear me now I won't stay
It's my turn to walk awayI've found the strength to finally say it
What the walls have heard a thousand times
And I just don't want pain, I'm no longer insane
I've reconnected my mindNow the conversation's over, yeah
And there's nothing more to say, yeah yeah
I've had my time with you
So hear me now I won't stay
(I won't stay)
It's my turn to walk awayNow the conversation's over
(It's over, yeah)
And there's nothing more to say
(To say, to say)
I've had my time with you
So hear me now
I won't stay
(I won't stay)

It's my turn to walk awayWalk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
