

Hate That I Love You

AJ Mitchell

I spend a couple minutes in morning talk-talking to myself Asking if the space you hold should be fill-filled whit someone else
You've got thinking crazy things like the state of my mental health
 Oh no, oh no
 You get me so up then push me down Like i'm you are own personal elevator
 You pull me all in then you pull me out Actin' all nice just to hide your bad behavior
 I love to hate you,
 but i hate that i love you
 I love to hate you
 but i hate that i love you
 You say you're so so so sorry now
 But i don't believe a word from your mouth
 I love to hate you,
 but i hate that i love you
 I love to hate you,
 but i hate that i love you
 I love to hate you,
I need a holiday, just a couple, couple days without ya
 Now I'm sitting on the plane thinkin
 'Where the fuck, where the fuck are ya?'
You had me packin all my bags and now i'm sad i'm somewhere else
 Oh no, oh no
 You get me so up then you push me down Like I'm your own personal elevator You pull me all in than you pull me out
 Actin all nice just to hide your bad behavior
 I love to hate you,
 I love to hate you,
 You say you're so so so sorry now
 But i don't believe a word from your mouth
 I love to hate you,
 I love to hate you,
I love to hate you,
This is what you do to me
 Pull you off, put you back, glued to me, yeah

Pull you off, put you back, glued to me, yeah

Pull you off, put you back, glued to me, yeah

This is what you do to meI spend a couple minutes in morning talk-talking to myself

 Asking if the space you hold should be fill-filled whit someone else

 Oh no, oh noI love to hate you,

 but i hate that i love you

 I love to hate you,

 You say you're so so so sorry now

 But i don't believe a word from your mouthI love to hate you,

 but i hate that i love you

 I love to hate you,

 but i hate that i love youOh

 I love to hate you,

 I love to hate you,
