Et do tre
Ooh oh ru nanana
You're slidin' down a dream, oh yea
Where nights are born in blue, that's the truth
You're swimmin' in a stream, oh yea
Fish are jumpin' too, next to you
Suddenly you notice someone's at the door
You could swear you've been through this all before
Then she runs her fingertips through your hair
Your life has just begun
Her fingers, they are everywhere
You're floatin' light like air, leavin' the ground
And she shines on just like the sun
You're gazin' at the sky, oh my
The stars are out tonight, shinin' bright
You're waving to a cloud, bye bye
(Aaa)
You're drownin' in the smile of his eyes
Suddenly you feel, there's no time for a deal

Though a voice tells you, it's for real
And she runs her fingertips through your hair
And life has just begun
(Ooh)
Her fingers, there and everywhere
You're floatin' light like air, leavin' the ground
She, she shines on just like the sun
It's just a sunny afternoon
Sombody's singin' songs of love, child
You love a lazy afternoon once in a while
Once in a while
And she runs her fingertips through your hair
(She runs)
Your life has just begun
(Ooh)
Her fingers, they are everywhere
You're floatin' light like air, leavin' the ground
And she shines on just like the sun
