

No Evasion

Vonrenzo

Like ink we blend together
In over the lines we could not keep
Delusion seemed so adequate
For these promises I break
I think no one, gets away
I think no one, but you, gets me...
If I needed to know,
Why are we here?
With no evasion reality
She sits inside the corners
Where I was the word she did not know
Although she used to tell me
I looked like a person she used to adore
If I needed to know,
Why are we here?
With no evasion reality
I think no one, God I think no one
Gets away...
