

Invisible War

Sitti

Invisible war
Seems we're waging an invisible war
Strained manoeuvres, keeping silent scoreIn this invisible war
Every day I seem to lose you more
Both wishing it was like before
In this invisible warTalk about a fine line between love and hate
We've lost more than our direction of late
Talk about a fine line between lovers and friends
We've never been lovers, now we're not even friendsIn this invisible war
Seems we're waging an invisible war
Every day I seem to lose you more
In this invisible warWounded deeply, the scar is here to stay
Opening up at little things I do and say
You always want things to be as before
So I make you angry and you bleed a little moreIn this invisible war
Seems we're waging an invisible war
Every day I seem to lose you more
In this invisible warWanna run away, I still love you
Got to go away, I always love you
Got to be away, time heals all woundsInvisible war
