Other Towns and Cities

Camera Obscura

Drinking whiskey reminds me of you
You're the first in ages to have gotten through
I know you mean it, well, yes, I know that you do
But sooner or later you're going to break me in twoWere my pupils dilated?
Could you tell that I liked you? We were so unlikely

Flirt with an ex, put me to the test

Oh and still I want to tell you that I love you the bestWe turned the radiators on and there was no way back

Did you know you had the Plough star trail on your back?

Your voice is quiet and I need it loud

In the night you went up and the morning you went downIt's like you to forbid me to say goodnight

I had your brown eyes and limbs on me through the night

These words are weak and to your dislike

But you'll never believe them so I guess it's alrightDo you like the view I show you?

Oh, I say look at the light

Do you still miss the way that I hold you?

In other towns and cities who's holding you tonight? The dresses came out of the bag then the tears came

Drinking has never been the same again

I shared your trouble, I shared your weight

I lost it with you todayOh, we don't share a birthday, we do share a sign

And we shared something or was it all in my mind

There was talk of love and how I need it back

I'd be better for you than that last love of mineDo you like the view I show you?

I say look at the light

Do you still miss the way that I hold you?

Oh, in other towns and cities who's holding you tonight?

You're in another town or city, you mean nothing to me tonight
