Pull The Lever (Ninja High School Remix)

Test Icicles

Trip, slip, falling flat on my front
Skins on the floor put me up for a month
Is he here we need to pick up our pieces?
The fridge door's open so everything freezesIt's far too lateCurrently wait for connection
This deafening tone breaking my reciever
Currently waiting for connection
To unleash the venom just pull on this leverYour weight has gained
Your accent's changed
What should be done
To keep you entertained?Run for miles sleep soundly at night
Go forth throw out the lie
Watch the screen till your accents change
And turn it over just four timesCurrently wait for connection
This deafening tone breaking my reciever
Currently waiting for connection
Shall we clear up this bloody mess now?Your weight has gained
Your accent's changed
Does everyone seem to be slightly deranged?
