

Oh Dear

Sophie Zelmani

Don't you ever go out?
When was the last time you were out?
Have you ever been out?
Oh dear...Is something wrong with the air,
Since you can't breathe in here?
How long have you held your breath?
Oh dear...What is closing you in
Must be a giant dream.
It's not your life we have seen,
Oh dear...Don't let your choices be
Hopes you still can't feel.
All was given for free,
My dear.
