National Anthem's Band

We were sleeping till you came along
With your diamond heart
You let us in the wooden house
To share in all the wealth
Don't you know it's true?
Norway eeeay eeeaaaay ay-ay-ay
Seven figures leap the hungry maws
The beastie comes to you
He's a hunter for a lonely heart

In the season of the sun
Don't you know it's true?
Norway eeeay eeeaaaay ay-ay-ay
Where you thinkin' that you gotta run to now
With the beating of a diamond heart?
Hang on to the things that you're supposed to say
Billions of stars that open to your fate
Norway eeeay eeeaaaay ay-ay-ay (repeat)
