

Caroline

David Gray

Caroline

Those crazy eyes that shine
The days blowing through my mind
Like falling leaves
It ain't no good
I tried as hard as I could
But you just won't let
My poor heart be.

The final war
A steel eyed dinosaur
Girl I want you more
Than I can say
Ah but Caroline
It seems like every time
Honey all I get is further away.

The state I'm in
Got goosebumps on my skin
See the water I'll jump right in
Your heart so free
I'll face the facts
It's paper on the cracks
Girl till I got you right
Back here with me.
