

Money

ZHU

Two should combine, be true to your heart
You can believe in me So take out your gun, the things that could do
We can build from the start, will you trust in me? Money, no, I don't need no money, no
I mean, it's just money
It don't mean a thing without you In the middle of the night, when the mood is right
And the moon is bright, we can give ourselves to the wild
Give it up to the wild
When we're working from this high and you're by my side
Look in my eyes, we can start a whole new life
A whole new life So take out your gun, the things that could do
We can build from the start, will you trust in me? Money, no, I don't need no money, no
I mean, it's just money
It don't mean no thing without you
Money, no, I don't need no money, no
I mean, it's just money
It don't mean a thing without you Tell me how you do it, do it
Would you, would you want some right now?
Tell me how you do it, do it
Would you, would you want some right now?
Tell me how you do it, do it
Would you, would you want some right now?
Tell me how you do it, do it
Tell me how you do it, do it Money, no, I don't need no money, no
I mean, it's just money
It don't mean no thing without you
Money, no, I don't need no money, no
I mean, it's just money
It don't mean a thing without you
