

Live It Well

Memphis May Fire

Am I being honest with myself?
Is this where I'm supposed to be?
Am I really making a difference for something bigger than me?
What will I leave behind?
What will they say when I die?
What is the story my life will tell,
And did I tell it with my whole heart?
Did I live it for more than myself, and did I live it well?
Did I live it well?
If I see the door and don't walk through it,
Is the blood on my hands?
Tell me I'm thinking too much when you already have a plan. I know I feel this way because I'm afraid that I won't add up to standards I create.
What will my story be?
What is the story my life will tell,
And did I tell it with my whole heart?
Did I live it for more than myself, and did I live it well?
Did I live it well?
Was I the hero or the villain?
Was I a hypocrite or did I live it?
What is the story my life will tell, and did I live it well?
Did I live it well?
Did I make them proud?
Did I live out loud?
Will they remember me for something more than just the words I sing?
When I go I want to know that I left something more than just a name on a stone.
When I leave I hope they see that I chose to live my life for something bigger than me.
What will they say when I die?
What is the story of my life will tell, and did I tell it with my whole heart?
Did I live it for more than myself, and did I live it well?
Did I live it well?
Was I the hero or the villain?
Was I a hypocrite or did I live it?
What is the story my life will tell, and did I live it well?
Did I live it well?
In the end when all is said and done and I take my last breath, did I live it well?
