

Left, Right, Out of Your Heart

Patti Page

Hi-lee, hi-lo, hi-lup up up
Hi-lee, hi-lo, hi-left
Hi-lee, hi-lo, hi-lup up up
Out of your arms
Out of your charms My heart said yes, right, right
Right from the start
Now I am left, right, right, left
Out of your heart Oh, you were such a cute marine, I really was impressed
You said of all the girls you knew that you liked me the best
I gave you all my kisses, surrendered all my charms
But time revealed, you played the field and Ireland I was left, left, right, right
Out of your arms
Out of your charms My heart said yes, right, right
Out of your heart You said you'd look me up, up, up when you got back to town
But when you hit the city all you did was look around
I caught you with a red-head and, baby, though you said
You're merely warmin' up for me, I figure I was left, left, right, right
Out of your arms
Out of your charms My heart said yes, right, right
Out of your heart You called me on the telephone and said, "Now Suzie dear
You're bein' mighty silly in believin' all you hear
You know I love you only so Suzie save your breath
But, since my name was Cindy Lou, I figured I was left, left, right, right
Out of your arms
Out of your charms My heart said yes, right, right
Out of your heart Hi-lee, hi-lo, hi-lup up up
Hi-lee, hi-lo, hi-left
Hi-lee, hi-lo, hi-lup up up

Hi-lee, hi-lo, hi-leftHi-lee, hi-lo, hi-lup up up

Hi-lee, hi-lo, hi-left

Hi-lee, hi-lo, hi-lup up up

Hi-lee, hi-lo, hi-left
