

Hate Me

Escape the Fate

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

(Tables turning!)
Can I let my smile disarm you
Can I sing my words into your skin
I wanna watch, so don't resist Hell while you're speaking cause you're so dishonest
You should be bleeding there's a world around us
I must insist that I can't play this game (So just save me) Hate me cause I live this way
Hate me for the things I say
Inside my rage is burning
I see the tables turning Hate me cause I live this way
Hate me for the things I say
Inside my rage is burning
I see the tables turning Do you see my conscience missing
When you hold the candle to my face
Your dirty hands, you cannot fake You say you know me do you even know you
All of your conflict leaves you battered and bruised
I'll be the one, be the one to blame (So just save me) Hate me cause I live this way
Hate me for the things I say
Inside my rage is burning
I see the tables turning Hate me cause I live this way
Hate me for the things I say
Inside my rage is burning
I see the tables turning (Hate me)
(Hate me)
(I see the tables turning!) Hate me cause I live this way
Hate me for the things I say
Inside my rage is burning
I see the tables turning Hate me cause I live this way
Hate me for the things I say
Inside my rage is burning
I see the tables turning Hate me cause I live this way
Hate me for the things I say
Inside my rage is burning

I see the tables turningHate me cause I live this way
Hate me for the things I say
Inside my rage is burning
I see the tables turning(Hate me)
(Hate me)
(I see the tables turning!)
