

Six String Soldier

Joe Brooks

This is a story of a six string soldier,
Down in the trenches six years bolder
Sleeve bloody from the heart hes worn there
But the valley gives the mountain such a sweeter taste in my mouth is so much louder than my thoughts and I wont take my foot from the door
Stand up with your weapons of war
Cos the man is going down Oh oh you and me could go,
So oh famously you know,
Like Lennon and Ono,
Except without the loco oh
La la who cares what you are?
I-I-Im no super star,
But with this weapon on my shoulder,
Ill be your six string soldier,
la la la la laaaaaaaa ah hey!
La la la la laaaaaaaa ah This is the glory of a boyhood pipe dream,
To wear a crown and make the girls scream
Tongue hungry for some more of that sweet tea
The days of taking easy for the honey could come back with a sting
De da da do de da daaaaa ah
And it says we'll go far
So watch out, cos the man is singing now Oh oh you and me could go
So oh famously you know
Like Lennon and Ono,
Except without the loco oh
La la who cares what you are?
I-I-Im no super star,
But with this weapon on my shoulder,
Ill be your six string soldier, La la la la laaaaaaaa ah hey!
La la la la laaaaaaaa ah And though your heart is breaking now
You know I'll be back in town
And then this love it will restore,
Much finer than before. This thing is huge,
Its just the beginning,
Its something new,
Its the start of me and Oh oh you and me could go,
So oh famously you know,
Like Lennon and Ono,
Except without the loco oh

La la who cares what you are?
I-I-Im no super star,
But with this weapon on my shoulder,
Ill be your six string soldier.Oh oh you and me could go,
So oh famously you know,
But with this weapon on my shoulder,
Ill be your six string soldier.La la la la laaaaaaa ah hey!
La la la la laaaaaaa ah hey!La la la la laaaaaa ah hey!
La la la la
La la la la
La la la la
