Lifeline

Craig Aven

Oh the weight of this world on my shoulders
Is taking its toll on me now
I canâ€™t carry the burden alone anymore Iâ€™ll admit Iâ€™m in over my head and it feels like I surely will drown
I need someone to pull me back on to the shore

Help somebody help I need a lifeline
Iâ€™ve done all I can do and Iâ€™m still going down
Please somebody please come to my rescue
Iâ€™m so over my head Iâ€™m afraid I will never be found

Mistakes of my past I see rising up fast
And their raging on every side
And this fear in my soul is a high price to pay Desperation takes every occasion
To sweep me away with a tide
And what strength I have left
Is starting to fade

Help somebody help I need a lifeline
Iâ€™ve done all I can do and Iâ€™m still going down
Please somebody please come to my rescue
Iâ€™m so over my head Iâ€™m afraid I will never be found

Iâ€™m so afraid to close my eyes for fear they wonâ€™t open again
So Iâ€™ll stare at the darkness
And search for a glimmer of hope

Help somebody help I need a lifeline
Iâ€™ve done all I can do and Iâ€™m still going down
Please somebody please come to my rescue
Iâ€™m so over my head Iâ€™m afraid I will never be found
Iâ€™m so over my head Iâ€™m afraid I will never be found
