Make a Change (Feat. Levi Maddox)Lyrics

Intro:

I said I could be something I could be someone greater.
And if you don't wanna cheer me on then see you later.

Hook:

Blood, Sweat, Tears and everything I do but still I got everybody hatin on me. While I'm trying to get the world to know my name. But I cant go on knowing that I didn't give it my all. So obviously were not the same.(Damn Right)I just had to make a change

1st Verse:

Everyday that goes by I'm feelin more like a loser
My mind is turning into mush staring at this computer
That's really ill I do then pass out while I watch a movie
Ironic guys who make fun of kids that play call of duty
Like how can you spend everyday on staring at a TV
They probllly look at me and think that what I do is easy
So why I'm not so fucking different then my generation
I guess we both just wasting time if I don't ever make it
But fuck it cause I don't do this shit for those who doubt me
Cause half of them are all my exes that could do with out me
The other half don't know my story never knew my name
They think the road to fame is filled with only fun and games (Ha Ha)
But little do they know the come ups filled with pain (Ha Ha)
But little do they know it fucking killed my brain
Its funny you get criticized if you gonna try to change
Its always someone you used to know that's still the same.

Hook:

Blood, Sweat, Tears and everything I do but still I got everybody hatin on me. While I'm trying to get the world to know my name. But I cant go on knowing that I didn't give it my all. So obviously were not the same.(Damn Right)I just had to make a change.

2nd Verse:

(ya ya)This is life contradictions with progression
Cause every session is either blessings or deep depression
I see the best when I'm needing rest but I'm pushing forward
Then hit the hay and pray some horrors not around the corner
And if this life just isn't what you want then make some changes
Go do it different move some shit around to rearrange it
I guarantee you owe your self a little confrontation
Cause all the basics and concentration makes domination
There aint a substitute for dedicated daily grinding
You may be blinded and sounding like a baby whining
Your excuses are fucking useless just go and get it
Just keep on doing what you love until its full and live it (live it)
Fuck a critic with a tiny brain to stay the same expecting change just defines insane I do this shit for everyone no matter who can listen just to say you gotta change to get a new position

Hook:

Blood, Sweat, Tears and everything I do but still I got everybody hatin on me. While I'm trying to get the world to know my name. But I cant go on knowing that I didn't give it my all. So obviously were not the same.(Damn Right)I just had to make a change.

Outro:

Every 24 you gotta make a choice
Should I go an get it, should I stay the same
Heading to myself I gotta make some noise
But you aint gonna be shit if you don't make a change

Hook:

Blood, Sweat, Tears and everything I do but still I got everybody hatin on me. While I'm trying to get the world to know my name. But I cant go on knowing that I didn't give it my all. So obviously were not the same.(Damn Right)I just had to make a change.(Oooo)
