Wreck Simple

Park

Are you
Upset over all of this?
Or are you
Just playing dead adding up the math?I can blink my eyes
In a sad sadistic fashion
In the hopes it'd make you move
In the hopes it would make you breatheIt's how disaster
Makes me feel
All I can think to do
Is stare and say"It's okay
Just one more day"
Spent tending ruins
'Cuz of youOne more connection
Cut off by affection
One more useless night
Spent in this lifeLick your lips wet
Try to forget
Jump in headfirst
Who cares if it hurts?One light flashing
Over guessing
Not for the life in you
I don't know what I'd doOne light flashing
Over guessing
Not for the life in you
I don't know what I'd doIt's how disaster
Makes me smile
The thought strikes as nice
Once in a whileOne more connection
Cut off by affection
One tank short on gas
One bullet built to crashOne light flashing
Over guessing
Not for the life in you
I don't know what I'd doOne light flashing
Over guessing
Not for the life in you
I don't know what I'd doThese broken lungs
Have little air left, if some
The cause and effect

Is simple as a car wreckOne light flashing
Over guessingIf not for the life, then this thought of you
It's a stupid thing to think that I won't lose
When all I want is this
To be more of the friends that sometimes kiss
