Wake Up

Damageplan

Wake upOur lives are entwined, can't escape
But you and I have never stood face to face
Still I can't get away
Think that you can just step right in
Push me out and then fuck things all up again
It never seems to endDo you think that you're better than me?
You better wake up 'cause you know it's a lie
Do you think that you're better than me?
You better wake up
Do you think that you're better than me?
You better wake up 'cause you know it's a lie
Do you think that you're better than me?
You better wake up
Wake up
Wake upCling to skeletons, fearing change
Paralyzed thinking, what the future will bring
You're killing everything
Pure adrenaline, I tear in
Hatred is my fuel truth dissects you again
And you've run out of friendsDo you think that you're better than me?
You better wake up 'cause you know it's a lie
Do you think that you're better than me?
You better wake up
Do you think that you're better than me?
You better wake up 'cause you know it's a lie
Do you think that you're better than me?
You better wake upAnd now it's time, the countdown begins
Extracting the truth, what was from what is
But once and for all we lay it to rest
And never look back again
Never again, never again
Never again, never againI can't believe all the things done to me
Sight unseen
You don't know one fucking thing but you
Judge meDo you think that you're better than me?
You better wake up 'cause you know it's a lie
Do you think that you're better than me?
You better wake up
Do you think that you're better than me?

You better wake up 'cause you know it's a lie
Do you think that you're better than me?
You better wake upDo you think that you're better than me?
You better wake up 'cause you know it's a lie
Do you think that you're better than me?
You better wake up
Do you think that you're better than me?
You better wake up 'cause you know it's a lie
Do you think that you're better than me?
You better wake upWake up
Wake up
