At Times We Live Alone

Sondre Lerche

At times we live alone
With our love
You're so polite and prim
I wonder who stepped off that train
Your kiss lands painfully
Far from home
Fails to resuscitate
The good old state
Of you and IAt times we live alone
With our love
So naked to the touch
But you've yet to remove your clothes
Your physical incarnation showed up
I can't locate your heart
A killer's heels
Across my sleevesI wanna come home
But I'm the guy you keep on trying
To commit
To a crime
Try I love you
Try get angry
Try go fuck off, call a friend
Try again
'Till the endAt times we live alone
With our love
You're not the first to find
You need a lifetime of your own
Your love assembled such Amilane
Now I must reconcile
This obsolete machineryI wanna come home
But I'm the guy you keep on trying
To commit
To a crime
Please, I love you
Try get angry
Try go fuck off, call a friend
Try again
'Till the endCould swear I belonged to you

Could swear I was wrong about you, too
Could swear I no longer long for you
I may never come home
'Cause I'm the guy you keep on trying
To commit
To a crime
Try I love you
Try get angry
Try again
'Till the endAt times we live alone
With our lo-ove
At times we live alone
With our lo-oh-ove
At times we live alone
