Dear Sons And Daughters Of Hungry Ghosts

Wolf Parade

I got a hand So I got a fist

So I got a plan

It's the best that I can do

Now we'll say it's in God's hands

But God doesn't always have the best goddamn plans, does he?I ain't quite the beauty Pulls out two guns and shoots at the pretty, pretty view

Gotta keep thinking, things, hunters and kings

To block out the view, I gotta get

New bell to ring

New song to sing

A steady hand to ring

A readiness of things I do

I gotta get a new plan to bring to the people

People I can trick them into thinking anything

Oh rust it just right in the light

It's gold, it's goldI got

Water and holes in my hands

I'm a digger of holes in the land

It's the easiest way

And you know

It's the easiest way

So I goLalalalalal got water and I got holes, so

Lalalalala

Sons and daughters of hungry ghosts

I got water and I got holes, so

Lalalalalala

Sons and daughters of hungry ghostsLalalalalala got a hand

So I got a fist

So I got a plan

It's the best that I can do

Now we'll say it's in God's hands

But God doesn't always have the best goddamn plans, does he?I can't believe in the guns I can't believe in the viewI sing, sing

Lalalalalala can't believe in those hunter and kings I got a new plan to bring

I got a new song to sing

And it goes

LalalalalalaAnd you know it's the easiest way
