

Old Hussies Never Die

Dawn Oberg

Oh the seasons pass with exponentially increasing haste and no regard for one's perspective or the scale on which it's based One thing stays the same with every passing year That's the brazen sisterhood we hold so dear

Old hussies never die
they just drink better wine eat chocolate on a chaise and sparkle by design
Old hussies never die
they just go on to the next cocktail hour in the sky ever more to laugh
never more to cry
old hussies never die
