ill be your armour keep you outta harm boy ill be your anything, everything, rock n roll witcha if things get too hard ill (?)

CHORUS:

Our love could run the world (oh oh)
Run the world

you cant ignore it your whole body gettin top to bottom im reproducing your deepest thoughts we off the leash the second we got leash the porche let down the top and hit the beach a future divorce callin ya girl who can hold ya right ill be your protector ill never forget ya you need somebody who can hold you tight

if things get too hard ill (?)
