Paper Knees

The Careful Ones

can you hear me hopeless louder than ever before every piece of me that's broken i've got a million more for youand I heard you that night you were screaming out that car hell if I really mind if it's who you arei'm alone
coming homeyou'll be waiting that night you'll be sitting on the street wearing black and white with red underneathtake that love that i've earned hold it close in my arms keep your paper knees closed and don't cry too hardi'm alone
coming home
