Annie Is Back

Little Richard

Well it's Friday evening about a half past five
Wait a minute here I can't believe my eyes
I looked up yonder by the railroad track
There goes Annie in a brand new CadillacAnnie is back, back, back in a brand new Cadillac
Annie is back, back, back in a brand new Cadillac
Now she's lookin' good, now she'll know how to actShe says flat foot henry was my sturdy dad
But he put me down when things went bad
But now I'm back and I must be keen
I'm dressed up now and no dirty dirty jeanAnnie is back, back, back in a brand new Cadillac
Annie is back, back, back in a brand new Cadillac
Now she's lookin' good, now she'll know how to actWell she went to get a soda turned everybody's eyes
Says, flat foot Fannie, she's been tellin' lies
She says I'm back and I'll make them true
If you don't watch out, I'm gonna take Henry, tooAnnie is back, back, back in a brand new Cadillac
Annie is back, back, back in a brand new Cadillac
Now she's lookin' good, now she'll know how to actAnnie is back, back, back in a brand new Cadillac
Annie is back, back, back in a brand new Cadillac
