Fortress

Ace Troubleshooter

So now a hush falls on my heart
My mind at ease, apologies as I start
Overcome, love holds me near
Pitiful boy, oh I am awed, try to be so sincereI come into
Your presence falling on my knees
Beautiful God
Your face I seekAll I can give you is me
My eyes are dim, and yet within I still see
Everything disappears
You are there
My heart wells up, why do You love?
Oh Lord, why do You care?In the stillness, the quiet
In the peace
You are there
The idols gone, my mind is free
Your love for me, my sins You chose to bearYou are there, my fortress, my comfort
You are there, my Friend, my God
You are here, my fortress, my comfort
You are here, my Friend, my God
