Jessie

Zoot Woman

Jessie please don't go
I know you hear it but words can't reach you now
we've had too far to go I know I'll miss you and time won't stop the feelingthe softest voices in my ear but must we share this memory?
the warm of your touch I cannot feel you leave me this wayJessie please don't go
I know you hear it but words can't reach you now
we've had too far to go
I know I'll miss you and time won't stop the feelingForever knowing yesterday
No time for time all gone away
See you now in memory Saying goodbye
