

Paint By Numbers

Karl Valentine

She paints my portrait sadly
In black and white
I see no shape, no patterns
Just broken lines
She lives inside her fear of
The dreams that pass her by

Oh, I don't have all the answers
But I've found my way
Love is not paint by numbers
Just hold onto my hand, you'll understand
But are you in love with me?
'Cause love will set you free

I paint my portrait madly
Colors take flight
Red anger
Purple grieving
Blue for her eyes
Your eyes known such suffering
Your lips, they draw me near

Oh, I don't have all the answers
But I've found my way
Love is not paint by numbers
Just hold onto my hand, you'll understand
But are you in love with me?
'Cause love will set you free
