

Energy

Skillet

'Power' is another word that I use to describe You
Your mighty winds come in and blow me away

It's You that I fear, yeah yeah
I shake whenever You speak my name
And I'm surrounded
You overpower me
You're a silent rage, You're a hurricane
You are everything I cannot see and can't explain
You're an enigma wrapped in a mystery
Everywhere I go, I can't escape Your energy
Divine is a reality that You define, You defy time
I see You in everything in fire and wind and rain
'Captured' is just the word to capture how I feel when I'm still
You are what I crave, You set me free I want to be Your slave
And I'm surrounded
You overpower me
You're a silent rage, You're a hurricane
You are everything I cannot see and can't explain

You're an enigma wrapped in a mystery
Everywhere I go, I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy
'Power' is another word that I use to describe You
Your mighty winds come and blow me away
You're a silent rage, You're a hurricane
You are everything I cannot see and can't explain
You're an enigma wrapped in a mystery
Everywhere I go, I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape it
I can't escape, no, no, no
Everywhere I go

I can't escape Your energy
