

Glow

Blackfield

I show the scars of every fear and doubt
I hurt myself to let the darkness out, out
The days go by and nothing brings me joy
The glow was strong when I was a boy but it's gone
And the glow, it goes so slow, it goes Cracks appear and passion slips away
Colors fade and turn to shades of gray, fade away
And the glow
