

Why Im Single

Alli Simpson

Here I am
Back where I started
Frozen over
Broken hearted
Chasing shoulders
Cold as ice
Shield your love
Or pay the priceIt's funny
When I put 'em first
oh oh oh
It's over and
Now we're in reverseWhen I give them my heart
And let 'em in
thats when it ends
I show them my scars
They open them over again
Every time I gave my love
Love left me there to linger
When I give them my heart
Thats when it endsAnd that's why I'm single That's why I'm single
That's why I'm singlePlayed the games
Those days are over
Things have changed
And now i'm older
Understand that love ain't easy
Lots to give
But don't receive itIt's funny
When I put 'em first
oh oh oh
It's over and
Now we're in reverseWhen I give them my heart
And let them in
thats when it ends
I show them my scars
They open them over again
Every time I gave my love
Love left me there to linger
When I give them my heart

That's when it ends And that's why I'm single
That's why I'm single
That's why I'm single (Here I am
Back where I started
Oh oh oh
Frozen over
Now broken hearted
oh oh oh) When I give them my heart
And let 'em in
That's when it ends
I show them my scars
Every time I gave my love
Love left me there to linger
That's when it ends And that's why I'm single
That's why I'm single
That's why I'm single
