You Are

Ruth

Burning everything I'm learning
Light a match 'cause I don't get it yet
Shake out mistakes that I've made
Swallow them down, is it more than I can take
When You call my name to walk on water?Cause You are the waves that I feel when I'm sinking
You are the storms that I feel when I'm dying
You are God, You are God
And I know, I know, I know, I know
You are God, You are God, I know, I knowSee You there standing on the shoreline
Watching me out here as I'm taking on the storm and I
I want You and I need You
And do You hear me? Because I hear You
When You call my name to walk on waterCause You are the waves that I feel when I'm sinking
You are the storms that I feel when I'm dying
You are God, You are God
And I know, I know, I know, I know
You are God, You are God, I know, I knowI feel You touching me, I feel You touching me
I feel You touching me, is there anything else to believe?
I feel You touching me, I feel You touching me
I feel You touching me, I feel You touching meCause You are the waves that I feel when I'm sinking
You are the storms that I feel when I'm dying
You are God, You are God
And I know, I know, I know, I know
You are God, You are God, I knowCause You are the waves that I feel when I'm sinking
You are the storms that I feel when I'm dying
You are God, You are God
And I know, I know, I know, I know
You are God, You are God
