Two Angels And A Dream

Depswa

Been searching for some answers
To the questions I should know
There's an angel up above me
And another down below
They offer me the world
But I don't exactly know
If these visions here they come to me
To stay or finally go
And I'm caught between two angels and a dream
One is pulling at my heart while the other rips the seams
Caught between two angels and a dream
And I don't know where to go
That's a vision of the kingdom
That it's twice is black as night
The other whiter than the sun
With growing rays of light
And somewhere in between
Is the place that I have known
And decision lies are waiting
To where I wanna go
And I'm caught between two angels and a dream
One is pulling at my heart while the other rips the seams
Caught between two angels and a dream
And I don't know where to go
I've got to find, find the answers
I've got to find my equilibrium
I've got to dream within the balance
I've got to keep my equilibrium
Between the black and white
Between what's wrong and what's right
It's where I feel myself fall upon
Between you and me
Between what's caged and what's free
Is I found where I belong
And I'm caught between two angels and a dream
One is pulling at my heart while the other rips the seams
These eyes have shown no future to be seen
Then to throw it all away for something in between
And I'm caught between two angels and a dream

One is pulling at my heart while the other rips the seams
Caught between two angels and a dream
And I don't know where to go
