

Where the Killers Run

Viarosa

I walk before the light I heard the voice of thieves I turn to catch a sight all I saw was me
all I saw was me

I called out and then I cried why can't you leave me be I asked you for human kindness but all I caught was grief yeah, all I caught was grief and it said I'll take what I like take all your petty needs I crawl out of every silence gonna' pull you out to sea

gonna' pull you out to sea

when every head is turned when every heart is falling down then I'll be waiting I'll be where you leave
when every head is turned
when every heart is calling out
then I'll be waiting I'll be where you plead so one thing before you die you better kiss the (freedom) plea beg for forgiveness pray to be released you better pray to be released but look around the corner son look across the prairie cause that's where all the killers run when they're coming in to feed yeah, they're coming in to feed

when every head is turned
when every heart is falling down
then I'll be waiting I'll be where you lead
when every head is turned
when every heart is calling out
then I'll be waiting
I'll be where you plead
I'll be where you plead

---

Lyrics submitted by BB.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlyrics.com/>