

Call

Ashanti

{ Me and this guy had a real strange relationship
It's like, we had some kind of power to each other
I mean, I remember this one time, he called me
It had to be like four in the mornin'
It was like pourin' rain outside and I was knocked out
But it was like when, when I heard his voice something got me out of bed
And I had to come to him
And it was like, whenever you call, I came runnin' }
