

Dogbite

Manraze

Under pressure
Under control
Feeding the living
With the limbs of the dead
Long before the dawning
Longing for the fall
Hell, we keep the motor humming
I am humming, running dry
Black, on fire, arrows
Aiming in the sky
Searching for a shelter, home
Hiding from each other's pain
Wake me, take me
Turn around and hate me
I may not be good company
But I can kill your apathy
Near the end of the stay
Near the bottom of the line
We all follow the animal
And escape the pain
Now tell me more about the girl
That I'm supposed to be
Sometimes it seems I've had enough
To make me walk away
If this is what you want
Then this is what you want
Who would even bother?
Say, who wouldn't want it, too?
Love controls with silence
As it does with words
You used to say that I have fire
Now you're gonna see me burn
Bleeding desire
Beat inside, outside memory
Burning empire
Like a fever turning blood into fire
What I fake
In my head
Alone
Bleeds
Wherever
I go
Now is just
A matter of time
And we are less
Than a moment
Of high tension
Once bitten, twice shy
One is wrong and almost done
One is one plus one plus one

One is one more than just none

Another is just one

Another is just one
