In Defence

Inkubus Sukkubus

I don't know why it is you point at me that way
I know I have not sinned
(At least not in my eyes!)
Why can't you all just lead your own sweet livesHe never touched me that way
He never came as I lay
He never even appeared to my eyes
What more do you want me to say?
Will you please listen while I speak in my defence
For you are all mistaken
(Or you are surely mad)
Would you condemn a girl you think so bad?He never touched me that way
He never came as I lay
He never even appeared to my eyes
Someone must payThese things you say I've done are quite hard to believe
Been sleeping with the Devil
(Suppose you know him well)
I guess you think I'm going to burn in hell!
