

the runaround

HOLDING BACK ENTIRELY

the commissar, a superstar, the governess, the governor were all just looking for love at the liquor store cause baby theres plenty of time to carry on some more a commoner, the lioness, the teachers aide, the mute and deaf, and theyre all just looking for love at the liquor store cause baby theres plenty of time to carry on some more (will you take me home? cause Im all alone) the policeman, the bourgeois, your girlfriends ex, the revelers a commoner, and the millionaire, the teachers aide, the mute and deaf, theyre all just looking for love at the liquor store cause baby theres plenty of time to carry on some more were all just looking for love
