(Sample)
I defy,
You to find a bluer sky,
Than a summer in love,
With mirth.
Happy as Larry,
A smile I would carry,
One wondrous look,
Of surprise.
When I danced with you,
You even made the sun change you,
Such a pity,
We weren't pretty.
When I danced with you,
I always felt,
As if you knew,
You were scared,
Never dared.
Hell to play,
We'll show them anyway,
We shall tell you it was time to grow,
'Till it was time.
(Sample)
To grow
Nobody, ever find the truth in me,
Of a paradise mood/moon/move
In flight.
Exotic and even,
Made sentence reeling/really,
A glorious passion,
That night.
When I danced with you,
You even made the sun change you,
Such a pity.
