

Voodoo Doll

Heart

You haunt my room in the dead of night
I see your face in firelight
Your hungry kiss, I cant forget
But I wont give it to you yet You got moves, make a good girl sweat
You wont catch me in your net
You work your magic on my blues
But Im no slave for you to use I wont beg and I wont crawl
I wont be your voodoo doll
Baby, I wont be your voodoo doll You're stirring up a potion of colors, making me crazy
You got something I cant leave alone
Shaking me, making me tremble, youre calling me, baby
Heaven help me turn my heart to stone Yeah, yeah, yeah Hey, moon man, dont shine on me
You are dangerous company
I got treasure in my chest
And the price is high for all the rest Aint no snake inside my wall
I wont be your voodoo doll
Baby, I wont be your voodoo doll, yeah
Yeah, yeah Hey, moon man, hey, moon man
Wont be, won't be, won't be voodoo doll
Don't shine on me, man, don't make [Incomprehensible]
Wont be, won't be, won't be voodoo doll Wont be, won't be, won't be voodoo doll
Wont be, won't be, won't be voodoo doll
Wont be, won't be, won't be voodoo doll
