Glass Bottom Boat

Kathryn Williams

Your face has all the features
Of my favourite landscape
Wild rocky and desolate
A place where the weather can play
I've seen it so many times tired or asleep
I've seen it try and hide it when
There's people you don't want to seeAnd it's never the same
Like the sun on the run
And I'm never the same
Now I've found someoneWe're sat in Barry's bar
We're as tired as rock pools
We've been fucking all afternoon
Burning like fossil fuel
I feel like you've turned me into
A glass bottomed boat
You see everything I hide but still
Keep me afloatWild rocky and desolate, is that all I can say
I held your hand, but I still look away
I can see that I lost it now, scared of the day
But you were always there, telling me
Don't be afraid, don't be afraid
